

Workshop: Converging Corpora: How to standardize historical corpora of typologically and genetically different languages

Wednesday, 2 July

- 8.30-9.00 Registration
- 9.00-9.10 Welcome
- 9.10-9.40 Adrienne Dömötör, Katalin Gugán and Attila Novák: Historical Morphology and Annotation: possibilities, procedures, constraints
- 9.40-10.10 Kristine Gunn Eide, Kristin Bech, Dag Haug and Hanne Martine Eckhoff: Capturing typologically different languages in a multi-layered annotation scheme
- 10.10-10.40 Aaron Ecay and Akiva Bacovcin: An implementation of a morphologically-aware corpus annotation format
- 10.40-11.00 Coffee break
- 11.00-11.30 Marieke Meelen: Challenges, opportunities and insights annotating historical Welsh
- 11.30-12.00 Charlotte Galves, Filomena Sandalo, Luiz Veronesi and Glauber Romling: Annotating highly inflected languages from Brazil : From Portuguese to Kadiwéu
- 12.00-12.30 Anton Ingason, Eiríkur Rögnvaldsson, Einar Sigurðsson and Joel C. Wallenberg: From Many Corpora to One
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch break
- 14.00-15.30 Demo session
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00-17.30 Round table (moderator: Anthony Kroch)
- 17.00-18.00 Registration for DiGS
- 18.00- Wine reception

16th Diachronic Generative Syntax

Thursday, 3 July

- 9.00-9.10 Welcome
- 9.10-10.10 INVITED TALK
David Lightfoot: Some history of historical syntax: the Transparency Principle
- 10.10-10.30 Coffee break
- 10.30-11.10 Ellen Brandner and Ida Larsson: Perfect doubling and the grammaticalization of auxiliaries
- 11.10-11.50 Aaron Ecay: Examining stylistic influences on the evolution of do-support
- 11.50-12.30 Eric Haeberli and Tabea Ihsane: Adverb Placement in the History of English Modals
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch break
- 14.00-14.40 Poster session
Artur Bartnik: Two types of headless free relatives in Old English: a corpus-based study (second alternate)
Koldo Sainz: Multiple Causation in Syntactic Change: Romance Subordination
Nikolaos Lavidas: The loss of null objects and the emergence of the D-system: pre-Koine vs. post-Koine Greek
Elliott Lash: The Loss of Adverbial/Modal Particles in Early Modern Irish
Giuliana Giusti and Rossella Iovino: A Split-DP hypothesis for Latin and Italo-Romance
- 14.40-15.20 Ans van Kemenade and Charles Yang: The acquisition and loss of subject inversion in the history of English
- 15.20-16.00 Chris Reintges: The 'Richness of Tense' Parameter Revisited: High analyticity and residual verb movement in Coptic Egyptian
- 16.00-16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30-17.10 Heimir Freyr van der Feest Viðarsson: Oblique subjects and dative applicatives in North Germanic: Reconciling two extremes
- 17.10-17.50 George Walkden: Language contact and the loss of strict V2

Friday, 4 July

9.00-10.00 INVITED TALK

Anthony Kroch and Beatrice Santorini: OV Word Order in Early Old French

10.00-10.30 Coffee break

10.30-11.10 Katerina Chatzopoulou and Ioanna Sitaridou: Jespersen's cycle for NEG2 and conditional inversion in the history of Greek: Evidence from Romeyka conditionals

11.10-11.50 Einat-Haya Keren: Negative Concord in Modern Israeli Hebrew – Tracking down its Origin

11.50-12.30 Anne Breitbarth: Exceptive negation in historical Low German

12.30-14.00 Lunch break

14.00-14.40 Poster session

Dana Niculescu: The Evolution of the Romanian Finite Gerund (first alternate)

Julia Schüler: On the disappearance of the bipartite negative particle in Middle High German

Giuseppina Silvestri: Genitive(s) in diachrony: change and retention in parameter-setting.

Kenneth Hanson, Cristina Schmitt and Alan Munn: The Loss of Bare Singular Arguments and Predicates in the History of English

Ágnes Bende-Farkas: Indeterminate Pronouns in Old Hungarian

14.40-15.20 Sabine Iatridou and Hedde Zeijlstra: If diachronically

15.20-16.00 Orsolya Tánczos: Cycle by cycle in the history of shuisa

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

16.30-17.10 Lieven Danckaert: Changing patterns of infinitival complementation in Latin

17.10-17.50 Jacopo Garzonio, Cecilia Poletto and Emanuela Sanfelici: Why relative clauses follow Keenan and Comrie's generalization: a case study on the status of Old Italian complementizers

18.30- Conference dinner

Saturday, 5 July

- 9.00-10.00 INVITED TALK
Roumyana Pancheva: Scalar Meanings in the History of Slavic
- 10.00-10.30 Coffee break
- 10.30-11.10 Julia Bacskai-Atkari: Information Structure, Functional Left Peripheries, and the history of a Hungarian Interrogative Marker
- 11.10-11.50 Theresa Biberauer and Ian Roberts: Conditional Inversion and types of parametric change
- 11.50-12.30 Adina Dragomirescu and Virginia Hill: De-supine complements in Old Romanian
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch break
- 14.00-14.40 Poster session
V́ctor Acedo-Matellán: Changes before and after Vocabulary Insertion. A case study in the diachrony of Catalan psych-predicates
Éva Dékány: Weak & strong phases in infinitives: the case of Old Hungarian infinitival anti-agreement
Anne Wolfsgruber: Impersonal Se-Constructions and the Puzzle of Old French Subjects
Judy B. Bernstein: Demonstratives Expressed as Nominative Pronouns
- 14.40-15.20 Johannes Jónsson and Brynhildur Stefánsdóttir: P-incorporation in the history of Icelandic
- 15.20-16.00 David Willis: Maintaining the historical directionality of syntactic change in numeral phrases
- 16.00-16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30-17.10 Ana Maria Martins, Sandra Pereira and Clara Pinto: The diachronic path of “senão”: from conditional subordination to exceptive coordination
- 17.10-17.50 Ann Taylor and Susan Pintzuk: Split Coordination in the History of English